MAY BE A BURGLAR

MAN CAUGHT IN BERETANIA STREET RESIDENCE THIS MORNING AND TAKEN TO STATION.

C. Schoellkopf captured a man early this morning under circumstances that are peculiar. Schoellkopf, who is an agent for some of Dr. McGrew's residences on Beretania street, resides at 479 Beretania street, where Ollie Swain lived. Swain's place had been visited on several occasions by burglars, the last visit of the gentry resulting in considerable of the furniture being removed. Ever since Schoellkopf moved into the Beretania street place, he has been on the lookout for burglars. He has had his suspicions aroused on several occasions for on visiting several of the houses under his care, he had discovered that the locks had been apparently pried open.

About midnight last night, Schoellkopf was aroused by hearing his watchdog bark. He arose, but saw nobody about the premises. He noticed a side window of his place was open. It seemed to him that this window had been closed when he retired. About 4 o'clock this morning, the dog was heard barking again. Schoellkopf arose and walked around the premises. When he reached the side of the yard, he saw two men run from the shadow of the house and jump into the yard at 481 Beretania street. Knowing that there was an opening in the fence that let out into Punchbowl street, Schoellkopf hurried around to Punchbowl street, thinking to head off the men. Nothing was seen of them.

He went into the yard where he had seen them disappear. He tried both the front and rear doors of the house which was vacant, but both doors were fastened inside. He had the keys to both doors, but as neither key could unlock the doors his suspicions were naturally aroused. His dog acted strangely, so Schoellkopf thought there must be some one about the premises. He broke open the rear door. When he entered the house he perceived two men standing straight against the wall, evidently hoping that he would not see them in the darkness. The dog gave warning of their presence however. Schoellkopf ordered both out of the premises. One of them had a small bundle. He ran away but Schoellkopf grabbed the other fellow and took him to the police station on suspicion. The man had four keys in his pocket.

The prisoner, who was a Japanese, gave the name of Ishimoto at the police station. He is being held pending an investigation by the police.

THE FIFTH IS BOILING ALREADY

POLITICIANS OF THE FIFTH SEVENTH ARE AS HEATED AS EVER.

The seventh precinct of the fifth district is as full of fight as ever. It will have just as lively a contest this time as before. The first elections are spurring no effort to win.

H. C. Birbe, of the anti-Social faction, has gotten up a petition for a non-partisan movement, unless the open primary proposition is abandoned. Birbe says that the other crowd will vote all the Kalaiki camp Home Rules unless rules are adopted to stop such a proceeding. Birbe says there are very many signatures pledged to the following:

"We, the undersigned voters and Republicans of the city of Honolulu, do hereby formally protest against the action of the Republican Central Committee in voting to continue the Wide Open Primary System and request the said committee to rescind said action and pass suitable by-laws to cover the same."

"In case this request is not complied with we pledge ourselves to form a committee of 50 citizens to assemble in convention and nominate candidates to run on a separate ticket to be known as the Non-Partisan Ticket. And to vote for the candidates so nominated."

Yesterday there was talk of a meeting of Fourth District men to protest against the action of the central committee regarding primary rules. No meeting has been called, however.

Many of the objectors to the wide open primaries are disposed to await results and see if the Home Rule voters are allowed to take part in the Republican family differences. If such a situation develops the threatened Citizens' ticket will become almost a certainty.

The Republicans have a new acquisition in the person of E. K. Lillikalani, who has joined the party. Lillikalani was gentleman in waiting to the ex-queen and has been prominent in Democratic councils. He was a Democratic candidate for Senator two years ago, but says he now thinks that the Republican party is the best and will work for it. Lillikalani is regarded as quite an acquisition and will bring some votes with him.

LOOKING FOR ALDEN BESSE.
The bark Alden Besse is now out 17 days from San Francisco. Special interest is being taken in this vessel as she has a large consignment of gasoline aboard and with the arrival of this material the present gasoline famine will be relieved somewhat. It was hoped that perhaps Captain Calhoun of the ship George Curtis would have sighted the Besse on his recent trip down but he saw nothing of the gasoline loaded bark.
